Index No. 98-017005

LIQUIDATION ORDER

Petitioner, Neil D. Levin, Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York (the "Superintendent"), having moved this Court by order to show cause for an order converting this proceeding into a liquidation proceeding appointing the Superintendent liquidator of New York Surety Company ("NYSCO"), vesting the Superintendent, as liquidator, with title to the property, contracts and rights of action of NYSCO, fixing the rights and liabilities of NYSCO, its creditors, policyholders, shareholders, and all interested parties and continuing the injunctions that have been issued in accordance with Insurance Law § 7419,

NOW, upon reading and filing the order to show cause signed by the Hon. Thomas P. Phelan on August 21, 1998 the petition of Superintendent Neil D. Levin, duly verified August 18, 1998, the exhibits annexed thereto, the affidavit of service of Stephen Ungar, sworn to September 2, 1998, and the respondent having failed to respond or appear and it appearing to my satisfaction that:

1. NYSCO is insolvent;
2. the further transaction of business by NYSCO would be hazardous to its policyholders, creditors and the public;
3. further efforts to rehabilitate NYSCO would be futile;
4. It is in the best interest of NYSCO's policyholders, creditors and the public that the Superintendent be vested with title to NYSCO's property, contracts and rights of action and directed to liquidate its business;

And, the petitioner, having appeared by the Hon. Dennis C. Vacco, Attorney General of the State of New York, and due deliberation having been had:

NOW, on motion of the Hon. Dennis C. Vacco, Attorney General of the State of New York, it is ordered as follows:

1. The petition is granted;
2. NYSCO is insolvent;

5. In accordance with Insurance Law § 7433(b)(2), all persons who appear on NYSCO's books and records as policyholders, obligees or claimants as of date of entry of this order shall be deemed to have duly filed proofs of claims prior to the last day set for filing claims;
6. The Superintendent shall provide notice to all other creditors, claimants, former policyholders and interested persons to present claims within four months of the date of entry of this order by publication in
 - a) the New York Times and;

b) the Journal of Commerce.

Publication shall be made once a week for two successive weeks commencing within three weeks of the entry of this order;

7. The notice provided for herein is sufficient notice to all persons interested in NYSCO;
8. In accordance with Insurance Law § 7405, insurance policies, bonds, and other insurance obligations, if any, issued or undertaken by NYSCO shall terminate and all liability thereunder shall cease and be fixed as of 12:01 a.m. on the thirtieth day after entry of this order or upon the procurement of replacement policies, bonds or insurance coverage by the policyholders or principals, whichever is earlier;
9. In accordance with Insurance Law § 7405, all other contracts, leases, tax sharing agreements, employment contracts and obligations, however described, of NYSCO shall terminate and all liability thereunder shall cease and be fixed as of the date of entry of this order;
10. The Superintendent, as Liquidator, is authorized to sell, assign or transfer any and all real or personal property, stocks, bonds or securities of NYSCO at market price or better, or if there is no market price, at the best price obtainable, at private sale and at such times and upon such terms and conditions as in his discretion he deems is in the best interests of NYSCO creditors and he is further authorized to take such steps and to make and execute such agreements and other papers as may be necessary to effect and carry out such sales, transfers or assignments;
11. NYSCO, its officers, directors, depositories, trustees, agents, servants, employees, and all other persons, having any property or records belonging to NYSCO, including, but not limited to insurance policy, claim and legal files, are directed to assign, transfer, set over and deliver such property or records to the Superintendent, as liquidator;

14. ALL PERSONS ARE PERMANENTLY ENJOINED AND RESTRAINED FROM OBTAINING PREFERENCES, JUDGMENTS, ATTACHMENTS, OR OTHER LIENS, OR MAKING ANY LEVY AGAINST NYSCO'S ASSETS OR ANY PART THEREOF.
15. The officers, directors, shareholders, trustees, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and managers of NYSCO and all other persons are permanently enjoined and restrained from the transaction of NYSCO's business, the waste or disposition of its property, interfering with the Superintendent, as liquidator, in the possession, control and management of NYSCO's property or in the discharge of his duties;
16. All parties to lawsuits in which NYSCO is obligated to defend a party pursuant to an insurance policy, contract or otherwise shall continue to be enjoined and restrained from proceeding with any pre-trial conference, trial, application for judgment or proceeding on judgments or settlements in all actions and proceedings until December 24, 1998;
17. All further papers in this proceeding shall bear the caption:
