In the Matter of the Application of

Index No. 42173/1984

ORDER OF LIQUIDATION

JAMES P. CORCORAN, as Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York, for an order to take possession of and liquidate the business of and dissolve

NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY

-----x

Petitioner, JAMES P. CORCORAN, Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York, having moved this Court for an order to take possession of the property and to liquidate the business and affairs and to dissolve the corporate existence of NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY, and such motion having duly come on before this Court on the 22nd day of June, 1984.

NOW, upon reading and filing the order to show cause made on the 13th day of June, 1984 by the Hon. Justice THOMAS J. HUGHES, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and the petition of JAMES P. CORCORAN, Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York, verified the 15th day of June, 1984, and the exhibits annexed thereto, with proof of due service thereof, in support of said motion, and it appearing to my satisfaction that NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York on December 2, 1964 and licensed as a stock casualty insurer in the State of New York on May 5, 1965; that its principal office is located in the County of Nassau, City and State of New York; that it is amenable to the Insurance Law of the State of New York and particularly to Article XVI thereof, and upon reading the order of rehabilitation entered in the New York County Clerk's office on the 13th day of March, 1984; Exhibit "A" annexed to the petition herein, and it appearing to my satisfaction that further efforts to rehabilitate NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY would be futile and that the rehabilitation proceeding of the said corporation should be terminated; that it is impossible to reinsure in whole or in part the existing policy obligations of NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY pursuant to the provisions of Section 514 (2a), Insurance Law, and that the Liquidator should be relieved of the requirement of said Section; that NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY is insolvent; that it is in such conditio that its further transaction of business would be hazardous to its policyholders, creditors or to the public; that it is to the best interests of all persons concerned that this application should be granted and NASSAU INSURANCE COMPANY should be liquidated under and pursuant to Article XVI of the Insurance Law; that it should be dissolved and its corporate charter annulled and forfeited; and petitioner having appeared by Hon. ROBERT ABRAMS, Attorney General of the State of New York, in support of said motion, and there being no appearance in opposition thereto, and after due deliberation having been had thereon and upon filing the opinion of the Court;

NOW, on motion of Hon. ROBERT ABRAMS, Attorney General of the State of New York, it is ORDERED, that the petition of JAMES P. CORCORAN, Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York, be and the same hereby is in all respects granted; and it is further
