J.S.C.

HON. _____X JUSTICE.

In the Matter of

Index No.: 400533/13

the Application of

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Benjamin M. Lawskey, Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York, for an Order of Appointment as Ancillary Receiver of

RECEIVED

MAR 25 2013

AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

PART 13

Upon reading and filing the annexed verified petition ("Verified Petition") of Benjamin M. Lawskey, Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York ("Superintendent"), duly verified on the 21st day of March, 2013, the affidavit of Jean Marie Cho, Deputy Superintendent of Property and Casualty Insurance, sworn to on the 20th day of March, 2013, and it appearing that the relief sought should be granted;

NOW, on motion of Eric T. Schneiderman, Attorney General of the State of New York, attorney for the Superintendent, and after due deliberation having been had thereon;

LET Andrew Boron, as the duly-appointed rehabilitator ("Domiciliary Receiver") of American Manufacturers Mutual Insurance Company ("American Manufacturers") <sup>or counsel appear and</sup> show cause before this Court at IAS Part 13 Room 210, thereof, at the Courthouse located at 71 Thomas Street in the County of New York and State of New York, on the 17th day of April, 2013, at 9:30 o'clock in the A.m., or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard ("Return Date"), why an order should not be made, pursuant to Article 74 of the New York Insurance Law ("Insurance Law"), inter alia: (1) appointing the Superintendent and his successors in office ancillary receiver of American Manufacturers ("Ancillary Receiver"); (2) directing the Superintendent to immediately take possession of the property and recover such other assets of American Manufacturers located in the State of New York; (3) issuing the injunctions provided for in Insurance Law Section 7419, including permanently enjoining and restraining all persons from: (a) transacting American Manufacturers' business except as authorized by the Ancillary Receiver, (b) wasting or disposing of its property located in the State of New York, (c) interfering with the Superintendent as Ancillary Receiver in the possession, control or management of American Manufacturers' property or in the discharge of his duties, (d) commencing or prosecuting any actions, lawsuits, or proceedings against American Manufacturers, the New York Liquidation Bureau or the Superintendent as Ancillary Receiver, and (e) obtaining preferences, judgments, attachments or other liens, or making any levy against American Manufacturers' property or any part thereof located in the State of New York; (4) granting the injunctions enjoining and restraining all parties to actions, lawsuits and special or other proceedings in which American Manufacturers, its policyholders or insureds, are obligated to defend a party or to provide a defense of any matter against an insured pursuant to an insurance policy, bond, contract or otherwise, from proceeding with any discovery, court proceedings or other litigation tasks or procedures, including, but not limited to, conferences, trials, applications for judgment or proceedings on settlement or judgment, for a period of 180 days from the date of entry of an order of ancillary receivership; (5) requiring that all persons or entities having property located in the State of New York and/or information belonging or relating to American Manufacturers, including, but not limited to, insurance policies, underwriting data, claims files (electronic or paper) and/or software programs owned by, belonging to or relating to American Manufacturers shall preserve such property and/or information and immediately, upon the Ancillary Receiver's request and direction, assign, transfer, turn over and deliver such property and/or information to the Ancillary Receiver; (6) requiring that any bar date for the submission of claims that is established in the domiciliary liquidation proceeding shall also be effective in the ancillary receivership proceeding upon such notice as the Court shall, at the time of the establishment of the bar date, determine to be proper and sufficient; (7) extending immunity to the Superintendent in his capacity as Ancillary Receiver of American Manufacturers, and his successors in office and their agents and employees, for any cause of action of any nature against them, individually or jointly, for any act or omission when acting in good faith, in accordance with the orders of this Court, or in the performance of their duties pursuant to Insurance Law Article 74; and (8) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper;

AND sufficient cause having been shown therefor, and the Court having found the form and methods of notice specified herein to be the best notice practicable, it is hereby ORDERED, insofar as the Domiciliary Receiver has requested the commencement of this proceeding and provided a written waiver of service of this order to show cause, that the notice of the Verified Petition and this order to show cause (the "Notice") shall be substantially in the form attached hereto and service shall be made by posting on the Internet web page maintained by the New York Liquidation Bureau at <http://www.nylb.org> at least five (5) days prior to the Return Date; and it is further

ORDERED, that the form and method of notice specified herein is hereby approved as in accordance with the law and as the best notice practicable and shall therefore constitute due and sufficient notice of this order to show cause and the Return Date herein and the Verified Petition and the relief sought therein to all persons and entities entitled to receive such notice; and it is further

ORDERED, that any answering papers and supporting documentation (“Answering Papers”) be served on the Superintendent so as to be received by overnight mail or first class mail at least two (2) days prior to the Return Date, and that service on the Superintendent shall be made by overnight mail or first class mail at the following addresses:
